Service-Learning

Center for Service-Learning
Spokane Falls Community College
Civic Engagement
Practical Experience
Academic Study
Academic Service-Learning
Civic Education, Awareness & Understanding
Internships
Volunteerism, Community Service

Practical Experience

Civic Engagement
Academic Service-Learning:

A method of teaching and learning that engages students in meaningful service to their community through careful integration of academic instruction.

Service-Learning gives students an opportunity to use knowledge gained in the classroom to address needs in the neighborhood.
Service-Learning promotes high-quality learning opportunities by optimizing teaching and learning through coordination between classroom faculty, individual students, and community partners.
Based on the Washington Campus Compact model for Service-Learning

Center for Service-Learning
Spokane Falls Community College