3 Tips for Becoming a Successful Student
By: Dr. Alton Campbell

1. Treat school like a JOB: you are your own boss.
2. Make CONNECTIONS to faculty and staff.
3. Get INVOLVED in the college and with peers.

Tutoring program

We provide one-to-one tutoring help on math and English. Our tutor is Natoine Lively (below left) and he works in the Multicultural Center three hours a day, four days a week. Drop by our office to meet Natoine if you need help in math and English. We appreciate the CCS Foundation support and funded this tutoring program for us. Take advantage of this free service!

Emergency book assistant program

We have a limited emergency book loan program for students who have applied for financial aid but the check is delayed. For those students, who need assistance, please come to the Multicultural Office to complete an application form. We reserve the first week for new multicultural students. After the first week, this program is open to all multicultural students.
When do you need to see a counselor?
- Pam Austin, counselor

If you are a new or returning student to SFCC, it is best to see a counselor right away. The reasons are:

- Counselors are available to assist you with your education plan, which helps you map out your schedule for the next two years. This education plan helps you stay on target with the requirements for your program study and reach your academic goal sooner.

- About 20 days before each quarter ends, if you are under 30 credits, you definitely need to see a counselor to unblock the registration screen so you can plan and register for your next quarter. Do this early so you will be able to register for the courses you want or need to take. You have more choices.

- Counselors also are available for times when you are frustrated with your schedule, your instructor, or staff at SFCC. We are trained professionals able to help with such issues in a timely manner. Pam Austin can help with other issues, such as personal problems or tribal financial assistance.

- Pam Austin, Denise Osei and Cynthia Vigil are available for multicultural students, unless you are assigned an advisor, and will be the people who help you throughout your time at SFCC. Pam is available in the Multicultural Office. You need to set an appointment with Jane Gong at 533-4331. Email address for Pam Austin is pama@spokanefalls.edu

Financial Aid – What You Need to Know
- Marjorie Davis, director of financial aid

896 students’ financial aid were suspended in spring 2013 due to not meeting the SAP

If you need financial aid and have not yet applied, it’s easy to do. Just complete the “free” application for federal student aid (FAFSA) online at FAFSA.gov. You will need your 2012 income information and if you are a dependent, your parent’s 2012 income information. You must be a high school graduate, U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen, and be admitted to the college pursuing a degree or certificate to be eligible for financial aid.

You can check the status of your financial aid online anytime. Simply go to SpokaneFalls.edu, click Financial Aid, click Financial Aid Portal. Your login is your social security number and your password is your student PIN number, not your federal PIN. You can check for missing documents, download required forms and view your financial aid award and refund amount if one is due.

If you have a financial aid refund due, be sure to activate your Higher One Big Foot card. Remember, to “Swipe and Sign” to use your card and avoid fees.

If you are receiving financial aid, you must meet Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) quarterly to continue to be eligible for financial aid? SAP is measured at the end of each quarter for students receiving financial aid. If you fail any one area of SAP, you may be placed on financial aid warning or suspension and lose your financial aid eligibility. For more details, see the financial aid website at SpokaneFalls.edu, click Financial Aid, click Satisfactory Academic Progress on the left navigation bar.

Hi, what are your tips on purchasing your textbooks?

- Ashley: I bought used books from the SFCC book store. I am renting a book from SFCC book store right now for the summer quarter; it’s a lot of cheaper.

- Alfred: I borrowed some textbooks from my friends who took the same class before.
