May 2015

From the Multicultural Specialist

MULTICULTURAL OFFICE/CENTER

Well, spring quarter is almost over and summer is around the bend. I hope you all have a great summer and get rested up for fall quarter, 2015.

I would like to congratulate the 2015 graduates and wish you all the luck in whatever path you take for your future. I hope to hear good things about you as you go forth in life and make your mark. Even though I am retiring next year, I know I will stay in touch with the SFCC alums.

The Red Nations Pow Wow went great! We could not have done it without the help of all of the volunteers from SFCC and the community. I would like to thank all of the people that helped, especially Darlene Rickett, Jennifer Alt, Jessica Borgan, and Angela Merritt. Special thanks to Cherie Bachman for all the help in the concession area.

We are having a competition for naming our Multicultural Center, so you can log on to google (<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1uyjYALHhnU-woAulZ6tJA-s3ANKRwV7vMjwvX8Kt8g/viewform?c=> o&w=1&usp=mail_form_link) and send in a proposed name for the center. You can win a nice prize and you can enter as many times as possible. The closing day for the name change is June 16, 2015. The Center will also be getting a new refreshed look, with new carpeting and paint. The Red Nations will be buying the Center a new updated television set to bring it to the 21st century.
